Defendant.)	(Third Request)
)

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between Jason M. Frierson, Esq., United States Attorney, and Patrick Burns, Trial Attorney, Tax Division, U.S. Department of Justice, counsel for the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (hereinafter, "the Government"), and Richard J. Pocker, Esq. of the law firm of Boies Schiller Flexner LLP, counsel for Defendant CRAIG P. ORROCK, that the Defendant shall have to and including June 24, 2022 in which to file his Response to the Government's Brief Regarding Restitution.

This Stipulation is entered for the following reasons:

1. On January 26, 2022, the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit entered a Memorandum ruling that the Court in the present case had erred in the imposition of the Defendant's sentence with respect to restitution. The Ninth Circuit vacated the Court's restitution order and remanded "for resentencing limited to restitution alone".

1 2. The Court entered its Order on Mandate on March 29, 2022. On April 5, 2022,
2 the Court appointed Richard J. Pocker, Esq. (the undersigned defense counsel) to represent
3 Defendant ORROCK in connection with the contemplated proceedings regarding the Court's
4 vacated restitution order. The Court conducted a Status Conference on April 12, 2022, at 5 which resentencing and disposition was set for June 13, 2022. The Government was permitted
6 to and including April 25, 2022 in which to file its brief regarding resentencing/restitution.
7 Defendant ORROCK's response thereto is presently due on June 10, 2022. The Government
8 filed its Brief Regarding Restitution on April 19, 2022.

9 3. Defendant ORROCK and his counsel hereby request that the due date for his 10 response be extended to and including June 24, 2022. The Government has no objection to this
11 request. On June 6, 2022, the Court rescheduled the resentencing hearing for July 25, 2022.
12 The requested extension will not effect the hearing date, given that the response will be filed 31
13 days before the hearing.

14 4. Approval of the requested extension will serve the interests of justice, by 15 allowing Defendant ORROCK to further recover from his surgery, and allowing his counsel
16 (only recently appointed) to be more familiar with the history and nuances of the present case.
17 In addition, the member of defense counsel's staff most familiar with and exclusively involved
18 with the present case will be on medical leave from June 7, 2022 to approximately June 15,
19 2022 and unavailable to assist with preparation and filing. Defendant ORROCK is not
20 presently in custody, and has no objection to the extension.
